

MIDDIES HAVE FIELD DAY IN SPORTS--NATIONAL TENNIS DATES ANNOUNCED

NAVY ATHLETES SHOW CLASS IN VARIED SPORTS

Basketers, Grapplers, Swimmers and Gymnasts Have Big Day.

Navy athletes had a field day at Annapolis yesterday when they made a clean sweep in contests with college opponents in varied lines of sports.

The middies took the number of Virginia at basketball and their swimmers easily defeated the University of Pittsburgh. In wrestling Tufts failed to win a match while the University of Pennsylvania gymnasts were also outclassed.

The only defeat to the middies came in their clash with army officers in a test of skill with the blades.

ANAPOLIS, Md., Feb. 5.—Equaling the world's record of 1 minute, 16 4-5 seconds for the 100-yard relay and shattering the intercollegiate record for the 330-yard swim by 1 1-5 seconds, featured a dual swimming meet which the Annapolis midshipmen won from the members of the University of Pittsburgh here this afternoon by a score of 52 to 10.

The "Smoky City" tankmen were hopelessly outclassed by Uncle Sam's naval wards, their points being made by two second and four third place, seven of the total being the result of fine swimming by the crew.

The 160-yard relay race was the stellar attraction of the meet. Kanakani, a native Hawaiian, was the lead-off man for the middies, and he was followed by Gallagher, Winkler and Emery in the order named, the latter being the "speed king" of the navy tank men. Each of the middies had a little the better of his opponent in the laps, Emery finishing with a great burst of speed that was largely accountable for equalling the world figure for the event.

Scarcely less spectacular, however, was the brilliant performance of Sinclair, a Washington boy, member of the plebe class, who showed the way to his opponent in the 220-yard swim, clipping 1 1-5 second from the intercollegiate time, a feat which he has accomplished before this season. Summary:

100-yard relay—Won by Navy (Kanakani, Gallagher, Winkler, Emery). Pittsburgh swimmers—(Carr, Marshall, Taylor, Kiser). Time: 1:16 4-5.

60-yard breast stroke—Won by Quinby, Navy. Corr. Pittsburgh second; Gallagher, Navy, third. Time: 41 1-5 (beating Academy record by 1-5 seconds).

40-yard swim—Won by Kanakani, Navy. Corr. Pittsburgh, second; Gallagher, Navy, third. Time: 13 4-5 seconds.

220-yard swim—Won by Sinclair, Navy. Fish, Navy, second; Thomas, Pittsburgh, third. Time: 2:27 4-5 (1 1-5 seconds better than intercollegiate record).

60-yard back stroke—Won by McIntosh, Navy. Rowe, Navy, second; Kislens, Pittsburgh, third. Time: 40 4-5 seconds.

100-yard swim—Won by Emery, Navy. Winkler, Navy, second; Corr. Pittsburgh, third. Time: 1:57 1-5 seconds.

ANAPOLIS, Md., Feb. 5.—Gymnasts of the Naval Academy and the University of Pennsylvania were the contestants in a spirited dual engagement here this afternoon. The middies came through on the long end of a 38 to 16 score.

The sailor lads showed to distinct advantage in four of the six events. The Red and Blue representatives delivered the goods in the club swinging, in which the middies are generally bettered by their opponents. In this the Pennsylvanians captured first and second places. They also got first in the tumbling, the work of Woodward being superior to that of Pearson, Navy's best entry. The latter, on the other hand, outshone his rivals on the parallel bars, in which he took first, and he also got third on the horizontal bar.

The middies were easily outclassed on the rings, the middies taking all places. Capt. Hales performed in brilliant style.

ANAPOLIS, Md., Feb. 5.—The midshipmen wrestlers opened their schedule of matches this afternoon by easily defeating the matmen of Tufts College, winning all of the seven bouts. The visitors appeared green at the game. The sailor lads won five bouts by falls and the other two on decision.

Summary: 115 pounds—Won by Palmer (Navy), from Maello, on decision. 125 pounds—Won by Sinclair (Navy), from Crawley, by a fall, 8:47, body hold. 135 pounds—Won by Swigart (Navy), from Shea, by a fall, 4:08, body hold. 145 pounds—Won by Morgan (Navy), from Cohen, on decision. 155 pounds—Won by Yelverton (Navy), from Ward, by a fall, 1:40, bar and wrist hold. 175 pounds—Won by Widorn (Navy), from Andrews, by a fall, 2:19, croch hold. Heavy-weight—Won by Elmer (Navy), from Andrews, by a fall, 4:07, half nelson and body hold.

ANAPOLIS, Md., Feb. 5.—Pitted against a team of army officers from Washington, men who have greater experience in handling blades, gained while cadets at West Point, the midshipmen fencers, in their opening meet of the season today, went down to defeat by 14 to 4 bouts.

The army representatives included such experts as Honeycutt, Rayner, Patton and Becker, and it was due largely to their splendid work in handling the foil that the tide of the contest was turned. The officers won all six bouts in which the foil was used. Sabres and duelling swords were the other weapons used in the series of bouts and in these the middies held their own well.

Honeycutt was bested with the foiling swords, losing his three bouts. Summary:

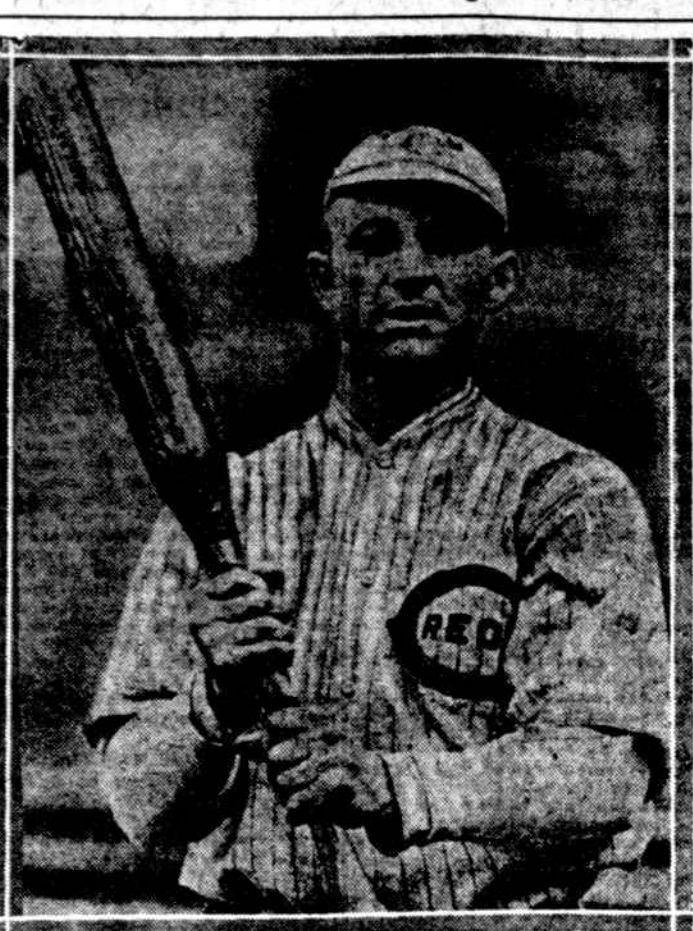

Foils—Honeycutt, Army, won from Chandler, 10 to 4; Rayner, Army, won from Sheels, 8 to 2; Honeycutt, Army, won from Becker, 19 to 17; Rayner, Army, won from Chandler, 8 to 4; Honeycutt, Army, won from Sheels, 10 to 7; Rayner, Army, won from Becker, 9 to 8.

FAST YANKS TAKE COMETS' NUMBER

Heddens' Sensational Free Shooting Features 40 to 25 Victory.

By F. M. STEPHENSON.

Congress Heights Yankees copied honors in the first of the three-game basketball series with the Epiphany Comets, 40-25 last night in the Congress heights auditorium, sensational foul shooting by Heddens and a whirlwind windup coupling to give the Yanks the edge.

Determined guarding marked the first half and ten minutes of the second period, with both quintets counting field goals from long range, with Miloff out on personal fouls. In the final minutes, the Comet defense crumbled. Ingley, Atherton and Heddens bombarded the stalling ring from all angles, while Haas men were successfully stalled when within scoring distance.

Eleven times Heddens got a chance from the foul line in the opening period and eleven times the Yankee forward connected. In the meantime Daniela, Boyd and Morris were engaging field shots often enough to balance the score sheet. Heddens and Ingley added one field marker apiece to the Yankee total in the initial half, placing their squad on top a 15-14 count at half time.

Heddens continued his pace at the opening of the second frame, counting his twelfth consecutive foul throw. Ingley hit from the floor and Heddens stumbled on the thirteenth effort. The Yanks took a five-point lead at the half station and Heddens bombarded the stalling ring from all angles, while Haas men were successfully stalled when within scoring distance.

Numerous penalties marred the game which was marked by loose passing and stubborn defense for the Yanks. The game was the best yet seen in the history of the league, in which he took first, and he also got third on the horizontal bar.

MIDDIES WALLOP VIRGINIA TOSSERS

Superior Physical Condition Gives Navy Quint Win, 30 to 18.

By F. M. STEPHENSON.

ANAPOLIS, Md., Feb. 5.—Basketball teams of the midshipmen and University of Virginia furnished a fine exhibition of the game at the Naval Academy this afternoon, the middies winning by a score of 30 to 18. Superior physical condition, which enabled them to make a spurt from the foul line in the opening period and eleven times the Yankee forward connected. In the meantime Daniela, Boyd and Morris were engaging field shots often enough to balance the score sheet. Heddens and Ingley added one field marker apiece to the Yankee total in the initial half, placing their squad on top a 15-14 count at half time.

The SPORTLIGHT by Grantland Rice

To C. A. B. and T. R. G. (In behalf of the banquet given at New Haven to Charles Albert Bender and Tyrus Raymond Cobb—their thirteenth of all the thanthomes of all the thanthomes.)

Let others drink while glasses clink—
As Bender used to do,
Before they picked the stuff that kicked
From out our homeless brew.
Let others drink to "Babe" Ruth's
Or Dempsey's lusty whack,
Or Man o' War's triumphant dash
Around the thunder track;
But where the wreaths of laurel
Swarm
To his one better high—
To Big Chief Bender's pitching arm
And Ty Cobb's batting eye!

The passing years have heard the
Clash of the bat and the ball,
That echoed down the world;
Where Collins drilled the hit that thrilled
And Walsh the mighty twirl;
Where Wagner held his regal sway
And earned a golden field,
Or Matty's matchless fadeaway
Was monarch of the field;
Let others sing the grace and charm
Of Speck and the St. Louis
But here's to Bender's pitching arm
And Ty Cobb's batting eye!

From vanished ways and long lost
Days
I see Chief once more:
The bases full—the boding lull—
The hit that ties the score—
A long arm flashes, tank and lean,
And high above the rout
A giant, red-headed, 19-year-old
Exclaiming: "Batters out!"
While memory keeps fresh and warm
Before the world goes dry,
Here's how—to Bender's pitching
And Ty Cobb's batting eye!

The Triple Assault.
The controversy still rages as to which should be the most deadly of the triple assault in wrestling—the head lock, the toe hold or the scissor hold.

If you had your choice, would you rather have your head warped, your leg cracked or your ribs busted?
As punishing holds there is no
vast difference, except that the head lock has a more brutal look to the crowd.

The wrestling multitudes have become adjusted to seeing a man's toe squeezed in a pythonic shimmy.
But when the head lock is applied it looks like murder. And it isn't a matter of any one crowd, but of all crowds, whether from New York or Nebraska.

The only answer is that any purely punishing hold that isn't launched primarily to toss an opponent for a few yards is a failure.

Little Graves by the Hundred Thousand—Unless Help Comes Quickly

OVER 3,500,000 children in eastern and central Europe face starvation between now and the next spring harvest. Little tots—three and a half million of them!

The mind cannot grasp such figures. If this number of children were to march four abreast in close marching order in army stride, the formation would reach from Detroit to New York, and would take forty days and forty nights to pass a given point. Or, visualize these figures in another way, if this number of children were to die and be buried in one trench, it would make one continuous grave 2800 miles long—the distance from San Francisco to New York.

It is a Child's Right to Live
It has been said, "Old men make wars, young men fight them, but always, the children suffer most." These children are the helpless victims of the late war and they are neither responsible for the war nor for their coming into the world. Many of these children are without either fathers or mothers; they live where local aid and assistance are absolutely impossible; help must come from outside if they are to continue to live.

Is a Child's Life Worth $10?
Ten Dollars—will assure life for one of these children. It will provide sufficient food and medical care—enough to stand squarely between life and death.

The life of a child—in all God's earth there is no more precious and priceless a thing.
And at least one little life should be yours to save. You who love children surely will take to your hearts one of these innocent little lives. You will need no further urging. Your hearts will respond eagerly and generously.

Whatever your gift—Ten Dollars to save one child, or Ten Thousand Dollars to save a thousand children, send your gift without delay to either your local committee or to Franklin K. Lane, Treasurer, 42 Broadway, New York City.

"How can we approach the holidays with a clear conscience if our readers close their ears to the cry of these children?"—Minneapolis (Minn.) News.
"The lives of these millions of children depend upon America. We can let them die or we can save them."—Council Bluffs (Ia.) Nonpareil.
"They are no more my children than yours. I know America has tasks and needs at home, but I make no apology for asking to lay on your hearts, our obligation to avert their terrible tragedy. Neither of us can care let them suffer through indifference and then cry 'service to the Christ'."—Harvard House
